Webinair with illustrator Martin Impey.

Earlier this week, children at KS2 had a webinair with illustrator Martin Impey.

“It was fabulous - he told us all about stories from his relatives about war time, showed us war memorabilia he had used in his illustrations and talked about how he illustrated the book 'Where the Poppies now Grow'.

To our delight he also answered some of the questions we had emailed through!”

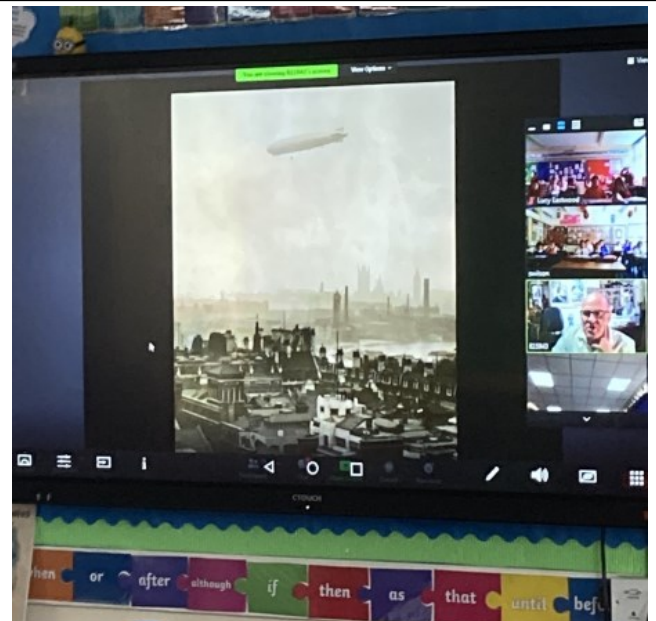

If you are interested in looking at the book he illustrated, it can be purchased here:

The bookshop that delivered the webinair is: <https://uk.bookshop.org/shop/Therabbitholebrigg>

Please do take a look if you get the chance, supporting small businesses at this difficult time is so important.

Thank you.

Heads Up!

This week we have decided to give Mr Linsley a week off and stage a 'Year 6 Takeover' of his page of the newsletter! We thought we would share some of the things we have been doing. It's been another busy few weeks!

Remember, remember...

Last week it was Bonfire Night. We learnt about Guy Fawkes and watched some hilarious Horrible Histories episodes which told us about The Slimy Stuarts and the plague!! We made Bonfire pictures by using black paper and colourful chalks.

Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day is a celebration for all of our beloved army soldiers who died in the war. A few years after World War 1 ended, poppies grew in the fields where the war had taken place and where many had bravely lost their lives. To this day, we still wear poppies to remember the soldiers. In class we observed the two-minute silence to respect the soldiers who gave their lives for us and to thank those who are currently serving in our armies.

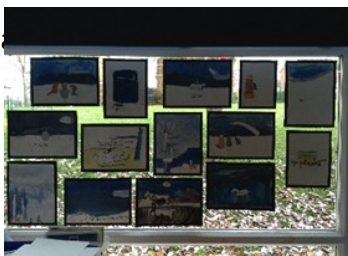

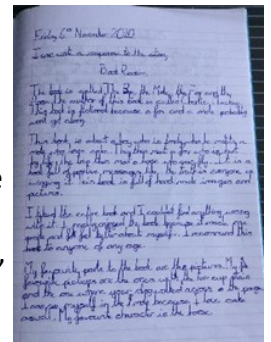

As part of the Remembrance Week, schools from all over the UK joined in with a zoom call with Martin Impey. He illustrated the book 'Where the Poppies Now Grow' which we read in class. Martin told us about his nan who lived through World War 1 and 2. She saw a Zeppelin one night while walking home when she was young!

We Love Books!!

We have finished reading The Boy, The Mole, The Fox and The Horse. We loved the illustrations and the messages and we enjoyed painting our own versions of our favourite illustrations and designing the perfect cake for mole! We have now started our new book, 'The Nowhere Emporium' and have begun the topic by creating our own.

And finally...

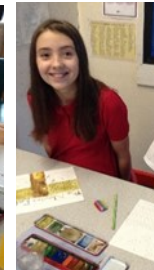

Jokes of the day:

Why do you tell an actor to break a leg?

Because every show needs a cast!

Did you hear about the guy who chopped off the left side of his body?

He is all right now!

Have a good weekend!

Stay safe!

Blue Peter has been launched on YouTube at CBBC and we were wondering if your pupils and parents would be interested in this.

Blue Peter is the longest running kids TV show in the world and they are uploading videos to it that are suitable for 5-11 year olds. We have world record breaking challenges, arts and crafts, environmental videos, cooking and baking how-to's, inspirational films, gaming, celebrity appearances, dance routines and music performances. We also feature ways of getting a Blue Peter badge, behind the scenes footage and extra content about our incredible presenters Adam, Lindsey, Mwaksy, Richie and Henry the Blue Peter dog.

You can subscribe to this at: <https://www.youtube.com/bluepeter> (it's completely free to subscribe) and you can also watch the live programme on CBBC at 5.30pm every week, or on BBC iPlayer.

Thanks so much for your time,

The Blue Peter Team!

If anyone, grandparents/parents/pupils has a blue peter badge then we'd love to see a picture of them with it!
Or if you feel like taking on the challenge of getting yourself a Blue Peter Badge, please let us know how it goes.

Cameron Campbell made this fantastic egg box wreath for Remembrance Sunday and to support his Dad who is a veteran. Fantastic Cameron, well done!

Please can we remind parents to ensure that children come to school with warm uniform, e.g. jumpers/cardigans. We are required to have some windows open in the classrooms for extra ventilation at the moment, so the classrooms may be slightly chillier than they normally would be at this time of year. Many thanks.

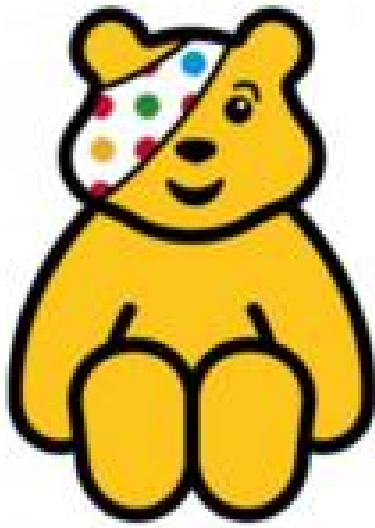

Next week, 16th - 20th
November is Anti-Bullying week

 KS2 CHILDREN *****

It is now getting very muddy on the field. If your child would like to continue to play on the grass, please send an old pair of shoes or trainers in a carrier bag. These shoes will be kept in school so that children can change in and out of them at break times.

Garthway Arcade is near Grovers toy shop or accessed via the Applegarth car park near the Chinese takeaway. Should you need a parcel you are welcome to come along without a voucher or recommendation for your first visit. Then we will direct you to one of our agency partners for vouchers for future visits.

You will be given your first food parcel, according to the size of your family. This will be enough food for three days and is made up of tins and packet goods, plus fresh bread and spread.
